AFTERNOON TEA A Brief History

Afternoon Tea is recognised around the world as a quintessentially British tradition. The exact origins of the Afternoon Tea are unknown, but one lady features predominantly in all theories; born in 1783, Anna, Seventh Duchess of Bedford, lady-in-waiting to Her Majesty, Queen Victoria.

Traditionally, dinner was not served until 8:30pm or 9:00pm in the evening and the Duchess often became hungry, especially in the summer when dinner was served even later. Every afternoon, she experienced a “sinking feeling” and requested sandwiches and cakes between 3pm and 4pm in the afternoon.

Soon others followed the Duchess’ lead. In 1842, a well known actress named Fanny Kemble heard of Afternoon Tea, and began to invite some guests to join her. Soon all of fashionable London was sipping tea with a variety of sandwiches on the side. The custom of “taking tea” in the afternoon had become well established, along with a complex set of rules and etiquette.

Afternoon Tea prices are subject to change for seasonal menus. All prices are inclusive of VAT. A discretionary 12.5% Service charge will be added to your bill. A minimum charge of £42.00 per person will be applied on Friday, Saturday and Sunday between 12:00pm and 7:00pm.
